

1st CONDITIONAL Real Situations

Conditionals means "situations or circumstance"

If a particular condition is true, then a particular result

First Conditional= Real
 If + condition + result
 If + simple present + future will
 Examples:
 If he sees Diego, he will tell him
 If it snows today, I'll stay at home
 If we are free, what will you do?

Note: This conditional is real. It means we are talking about the future. There is a real possibility that this condition will happen. Ex. It's morning. You're at home. You plan to play soccer later. But it's dark and there are some clouds in the sky. Let's suppose it rains. (It isn't raining yet) What will you do?

Note: Will can be substituted by can, shall or may. Ex: If I forget my keys, I may stay out.
